Testimonial

“When searching for a new eScription editing service vendor, our objectives were to partner with a vendor who understood services, people, quality and potential for growth. Mediscribes is our vendor for the following reasons: (1) Quality of management (2) Extraordinary people with in-depth knowledge of clinical documentation and protection of patient health information. (3) If service levels aren't met, they credit that report 100%. (4) Exceptional references - every reference sings praises!”
